PUBLICATION OF POCA 2008

The proceedings of POCA 2008 will be published in the SIMA-PB series. The format will follow that of the proceedings of ‘P. Åström & K. Nys (eds), The Swedish Cyprus Expedition 80 Years (SIMA-PB 175), Sävedalen 2008’, which implies that the book will be somewhat larger (24.2 x 16.2) than the traditional SIMA-PB publications. Managing editors will be Karin Nys and Ariane Jacobs.

Procedure
1) Your manuscript must be sent as a pdf-file via email to Ariane Jacobs (Ariane.Jacobs@vub.ac.be) at the latest on 30 April 2009.
2) Your paper will be acknowledged by email, and subsequently sent to referees for peer-reviewing.
3) Once you have received the peer-review, you are granted maximum one month to amend your paper according to the comments of the referee. The editorial committee reserves the right to reject papers.
4) After final acceptance you send all the components of your manuscript on a CD-ROM to the following address (see below for further instructions):

Paragraph layout
Do NOT use paragraph formatting.
There should only be one space between a full stop and the next word.
All underlying should be avoided.

References
The Harvard style of referencing must be used in the text and bibliography. The textual reference should give the author’s or editor’s surname, the date of the publication and the page reference: e.g. (Gjerstad 1948: 56) or ‘According to Gjerstad (1948: 56), it is ...’.

If an author has published more than one work in a specific year, these should be cited as 1989a, 1989b, etc and arranged alphabetically in the bibliography.

Reference to two authors: (Karageorghis and Des Gagniers 1974)

Reference to more than two authors: (Karageorghis et al. 2000)

Reference to a plate or figure: (Åström 1986: 78, pl. 7; Webb 1999: 34, fig. 2)
Bibliography

ARTICLE
Karageorghis 1976  Karageorghis, V., “Two Late Bronze Age Tombs from Hala Sultan Tekke”, in Åström et al. 1976, 70-89.

Abbreviations for journals follow those suggested in AJA. Additional abbreviations may be defined at the beginning of the reference list.

Footnotes
Footnotes can be used for secondary information, but in general should be avoided.

Contractions
Contractions which finish with the same letter as the word do not take full stop, e.g. Dr, Mr, eds, nos
Contractions which do not finish with the same letter as the word do take a full stop, e.g. ed., no. 1

Quotations
Quotations which exceed two lines in length should be indented and separated from text before and after with a line space. Original spelling should be used. When necessary use ‘sic’.

Figures
Photos, graphs and line drawings must be delivered as TIFF or JPEG files.
All images must be scanned at at least 600 dpi (line art: 1000 dpi, scans from slides 1200 dpi) from a decent quality original.
Copyright: All the illustrations that are not the author’s own photographs or drawings must have copyright clearance. It is the responsibility of the author to obtain this clearance. The copyright information must be cited in the illustration caption or in a list of figures.

Tables
Tables should be formatted in WORD not in EXCEL. Tables should always be in portrait. If you wish to make a table in landscape it must be reproduced as an image (TIFF, JPEG).

CD-ROM
Your CD-ROM should contain the following components:
- text submitted in WORD; if you could not avoid using footnotes, please send these as a separate document;
- when Arabic, Cuneiform, Egyptian, Hebrew texts occur in the manuscript, it is necessary to include the relevant fonts compatible with WORD for Windows;
- a list of references/bibliography (WORD);
- each illustration as a separate document (TIFF, JPEG for photos and line drawings; WORD for tables);
- a list of figures;
- caption texts (WORD) for all the figures;
- an abstract of 50-150 words;
- name of author(s), contact address, email address.
