

LANGUAGE POLICY & MULTILINGUAL EDUCATION

THE CASE OF CAMEROON

International colloquium

Free entrance

DECEMBER 7, 2018

Vrije Universiteit Brussel, Campus Etterbeek, Room M.420

Registration required - estruys@vub.be

Morning session

Chair: Katja Lochtman

09.00-09.45	Registration
09.45-09.55	Welcome Esli Struys, Vrije Universiteit Brussel
09.55-10.25	The potential of CLIL to change education in Africa Piet Van de Craen, Vrije Universiteit Brussel
10.25-10.55	The revitalisation of Cameroonian languages alongside official languages – Towards a content-based approach Theodore Nzoukio Bakop, Vrije Universiteit Brussel
10.55-11.10	Break
11.10-11.40	Multilingual diversity, language policy, and sociolinguistic contexts Denis Bitjaa Kody, Director of CICIBA
11.40-12.10	Investigating tone in a spoken corpus of Cameroon Pidgin English Thomas Devlin, University of Huddersfield – Sarah FitzGerald, School of Oriental and African Studies, University of London – Melanie Green, University of Sussex
12.10-13.20	Lunch

Afternoon session

Chair: Esli Struys

13.20-13.50	Multilingual education: Cameroonian languages and culture teaching approach Maxime Yves Manifi Abouh, University of Yaoundé 1
13.50-14.20	Multilingual Cameroonians and multilingual education: Investigating challenges of indigenous language teaching Neele-Frederike Mundt, University of Koblenz-Landau
14.20-14.50	Multilingual education: PROPELCA teaching approach Gabriel Mba, Head of Department of Cameroonian languages and culture, University of Yaoundé I
14.50-15.05	Break
15.05-15.35	Languages in Africa, the key to economic development, peace, and collaboration Noël Muylle, Honorary Director General European Commission
15.35-16.05	Creativity and education Jean-Louis Baudoin, Expert in applied creativity
16.05-16.15	Concluding remarks Katja Lochtman, Vrije Universiteit Brussel